A well-attended temperance meeting was held last night at Gospel Temperance Hall, No. 203 I street northwest, under the direction of Judge L. J. O'Neal. Addresses were made by Messrs. Zook, Hopkins, Kay, and others. It is intended that these meetings be held every Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

On Saturday morning, as Sergt. Kennedy, Light Battery A, 2d Artillery, stationed at the barracks, was riding up Four-and-a-half street to report to Gen. Sheridan as orderly, his horse stumbled, throwing him to the ground and breaking his arm. He was removed to the barracks' hospital by the police ambulance for surgical treatment.

Capt. M. C. Davis, a receiver in the Pension office fell on the pavement on E street, near the La Pierre house, and He broke his right leg near the hip joint. was removed to his room, No. 432 Eleventh street northwest, and Dr. Bliss summoned. The injured leg is but the stump, it having been amputated during the war just above the knee joint. Dr. Bliss has reduced the fracture, and says the captain will be out in about six weeks.

FASHION'S USE OF FLOWERS.—Either for wedding or funeral a design in flowers may cost you from $5 to $100. Some fluteral notices say, "omit flowers," but no effort has yet been made to exclude the beautiful things from weddings. Their beauty soop perishes, while Brown's iron litters, which costs but a dollar a bottle, is of permanent use in restoring religious to pale checks, curing dyspepsia, weakness, malaria, &c.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

In these days of close competition almost every one seems to look only at the price. They forget that quality must be carefully considered.

As we said before, we do not keep any Fabrics which have not an intrinsic value. We will not sell an article which For Generating Steam. we do not think will give our For Cooking Purposes. customers entire satisfaction. We may possibly be deceived. Then we prefer to make good the price paid. We keep the goods wanted by the majority of the people. Goods worth the buying. WASHINGTON GASLIGHT CO. Goods of standard quality.

For five years we have aimed to raise the standard of qualities in preference to lowering the price. Have we succeeded?

The coming spring and summer season is to be no exception; in fact, it is to that we now have reference: It is to be an improvement over any previous season.

That our trade has increased goes without the saycrease of stock, which of course enables us to show a larger variety, thereby presenting a broader field for the display of your taste.

With our Spring Dress Goods has come a dress material under the very appropriate name of "Crazy Cloth," so called from its crinkled, crazy effect, and has attained quite a degree of popularity; is 52 inches wide, and all wool; only 59c per yard. In the following very desirable shadings: Coachman's drab, cardinal, scarlet, sapphire, Havana brown, Quaker's drab, dregs of wine, and navy blue.

For street wear and house dresses we are showing a very attractive line of 54-inch Homespun Suitings, at $1.50 per yard, in handsome blue, brown, and gray mixtures.

Scotch and German Plaids. Choice spring effects, in a large variety of combinations.

Remember Spring Jerseys. Our line was never more complete, and comprises some entirely new spring styles and shapes, and call attention to the best lowpriced Jersey ever offered; made, from firm, closely woven stockinette, standing collar, coat back beautifully fitting, only $2.50 each. We were very sorry to disappoint some of our customers on the "Holly Tree" Pillow-Case Cotton; but we never thought for a moment the demand would be so large. We have made arrangements and expect a large invoice of it Monday morning. Still 121/2c per

We shall do our utmost to keep the price down; but, remember, the manufacturers may put it up.

We never sold so much cotton at one time before. Monday we shall offer extraordinary bargains in Men's Winter Underwear, having marked it down with a view of closing out this month. We are showing an elegant line of Men's Hosiery, and quote specially Solid Colored Silk Plaited Half Hose, full made, double heels and toes, French toe, in black, cardinal, wine, navy, seal, three shades of drab, three shades of light brown, only 69c per
